

12TH ESLA CONGRESS
OF SPEECH AND LANGUAGE THERAPY
26 - 28 SEPTEMBER 2024 ————— BRUGES

SHORT SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

The Power of Communication in the Quality of Life

THURSDAY - SEPTEMBER 26TH

- 12:00 - 13:00 Attendees Registration
- 13:00 - 13:40 WP 1. Multi-professional collaborations for building research capacity in SLT practice
Hazel Roddam
- 13:40 - 13:45 Q&A
- 13:45 - 14:25 WP. 2 Implementing novel technologies for the treatment of neurocognitive deficits
Fofi Constantinidou
- 14:25 - 14:30 Q&A
- 14:30 - 15:10 WP. 3 “Use it or lose it” – the “IVTP - Six Voice Care Exercises by Evemarie Haupt”
Sara Forer-Kaufmann
- 15:10 - 15:15 Q&A
- 15:15 - 15:55 WP. 4 Relational Acupuncture for Voice Professionals: Fusing Ancient Tradition with Modern Science
Caroline Van Looy
- 15:55 - 16:00 Q&A
- 16:00 - 16:40 WP. 5 Systematic parental guidance for parents of stuttering children
Ronny Boey
- 16:40 - 16:45 Q&A
- 16:45 - 17:00 WPs Conclusion / General discussion
- 18:00 Welcome Reception
Location: Bruges Meeting & Convention Centre (BMCC); rooftop
-

FRIDAY- SEPTEMBER 27TH

07:30 - 08:30	Attendees Registration
08:30 - 09:00	Opening Ceremony ESLA chair ESLA Congress Task Force Chair VVL and UPLF
09:00 - 10:00	Keynote Speaker 1 - Prof Ann Kummer PhD, CCC-SLP, Professor Emeritus of the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine
10:00 - 10:30	Coffee Break Posters exhibition
10:30 - 12:00	Speech, language and communication disorder	Collaboration and interdisciplinarity in SLT practice	Voice disorder and prevention	Speech, language and communication disorder
12:00 - 13:00	Lunch Break
13:00- 14:00	Keynote Speaker 2 - Paula Leslie PhD, MA (Bioethics), Professional Advisor at Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists
14:00 - 15:40	Speech and language disorders in neurologic areas	Speech, language and communication disorder	Alternative & Augmentative Communication	Speech, language and communication disorder
15:40 - 16:10	Coffee Break Posters exhibition
16:10 - 17:40	Life quality, cost effective benefits in SLT field	Innovative neurotechnologies and AI in speech and language therapy: challenges and advances/The use of tele-practice in the field of SLT	Speech, language and communication disorders	Speech, language and communication disorder
17:40 - 18:15	Tena L. McNamara, AuD, CCC-A/SLP/ASHA, American Speech-Language- Hearing Association President
20:00	Gala Dinner Location: Hotel Le Bois de Brugge

SATURDAY - SEPTEMBER 28TH

08:30 - 09:30	Speech, language and communication disorder	Life quality, cost effective benefits in SLT field	Dysfluency and stuttering in children and adults	Speech, language and communication disorder
09:30 - 10:30	Keynote Speaker 3 - Victoria Joffe, Professor of Speech and Language Therapy Dean of Integrated Health and Care Partnerships at the University of Essex
10:30 - 11:50	Speech, language and communication disorder	Dysphagia and pediatric feeding disorders	Collaboration and interdisciplinarity in SLT practice	Speech, language and communication disorder
11:40 - 12:10	Coffee break Posters exhibition
12:10 - 13:10	Speech, language and communication disorder	Life quality, cost effective benefits in SLT field	Dysfluency and stuttering in children and adults	Collaboration and interdisciplinarity in SLT practice
13:10 - 14:10	Lunch
14:10 - 15:10	Keynote Speaker 4 - Youri Maryn PhD, Doctor in Social Health Sciences at Ghent University, Clinical speech-language pathologist at the European Institute for ORL-HNS
15:20 - 16:50	Dysfluency and stuttering in children and adults	Collaboration and interdisciplinarity in SLT practice	Voice disorder and prevention	Speech and language disorders in neurologic areas (aphasia, dementia)
17:00 - 18:30	Awards & Closing Ceremony

